Two Guys and a Truck teams with Giant Food to Drive Off Hunger

Gaithersburg, Maryland (November 20, 2010) – Cindy and TJ Vogle, owners of Vogle Moving & Storage, LLC t/a Two Guys and a Truck® had a charitable idea on how to use their moving company in Gaithersburg to help the less fortunate this holiday season. They created a Holiday Food Drive, nicknamed "Stuff-a-Truck," to drive off hunger in their local community. The Food Drive took place in Giant Food's parking lot in the Kentlands Shopping Center on Saturday, November 20th between 10am - 5pm.

Over forty (40) boxes of non-perishable food items, along with $100 in cash, were collected, transported, and donated to Gaithersburg HELP, a non-profit organization that assists needy families. "This is the largest quantity of food ever raised in a single-day event this year," said Dave Willis of Gaithersburg HELP.
